I am glad to the customers and internet users who love DOOROOMI !

With the best technique and best service in useful medical treatment tools, we have jumped into world's leadership position. Our Dooroomi medical has started its Indian office to promote good health and to contribute more towards health, love, and voluntary service. Our Dooroomi medical have continued to serve in more than 51 countries for treatment of acute diseases.

For the whole world, Dooroomi has contributed variety of products in a large scale. For this, R&D has become the initial base for more and more research to get a permanent place in the world's market.

In this time of technology development, making a definite report of quality certifications like CE, FDA, and obtaining ISO, GMP types of product Certifications is very much helpful for supplying good quality products to customers along with dictionaries with unknown information and also doing the best after sales service.

With all your support we are able to setup corporate office and factory in November 2019 at Nawada, New Delhi .Though Dooroomi Medical has been running for 2 years, there is a rapid growth in business network. In order to do service for public community, we have correctly identified the place where its needed and have ventured into the same with dare heart to contribute mankind health.

Creatively, I will promote the enterprise culture together with ethics management, green management, social management, to look upon near neighborhood as my own family, having a better health and creating a warm society, and as per the leader's opinion with a definite capable voice, will propagate the society equally to make closer and closer.

Dooroomi Medical is an enterprise with a challenging mindset and provides an opportunity to the customer to get love. Wish to make a healthy enterprise with more and more useful medical treatment tools and become leader with a commanding position. Wish to make a bright and new future with you all.

Thank you.

Spine:- Root of Human Body

Your spine, or backbone, is your body's central support structure. It connects different parts of your musculoskeletal system. Your spine helps you sit, stand, walk, twist, and bend. Back injuries, spinal cord conditions and other problems can damage the spine and cause back pain.

It gives your body structure and support. It allows you to move about freely and to bend with flexibility. The spine is also designed to protect your spinal cord. The spinal cord is a column of nerves that connects your brain with the rest of your body, allowing you to control your movements.

Dooroomi Therapy Principles

Massage is the practice of soft tissue manipulation with physical (anatomical), functional (physiological), and psychological methods to have a specific effect. Massage involves acting on and manipulating the body with pressure – structured, unstructured, stationary, or moving – tension, motion, or vibration, done manually or with mechanical aids. Target tissues may include muscles, tendons, ligaments, skin, joints, or other connective tissue, as well as lymphatic vessels, or organs of the gastrointestinal system. Its objective is the restoration of function, release of tension and re-establishment of contour.

Dooroomi's Spinal Massage treatment relaxes the muscles and tendons around the spine. The spinal massage relieves pressure from the spinal cord, unblocks nerves, and allows the vertebrae to move back into the correct position. This stretching massage also prepares the back for later phases of the Dooroomi treatment

Acupressure is an ancient Chinese technique based on the principles of acupuncture and involves the use of finger or devices pressure (without the needles) on specific points along the body. Acupressure is a way of accessing and releasing blocked or congested energy centers in the body. In Chinese medicine, energy and blood are closely related. The energy channels are pathways for both energy and blood. When a finger touches an acupressure point, the energy flowing in the channel is attracted to the surface. Acupressure healing touch reduces tension, increases circulation, and enables the body to relax deeply. By relieving stress, acupressure therapy strengthens resistance to diseases and promotes wellness. By holding points in a specific sequence, energy can be increased where it is lacking or dispersed where it is overabundant.

Moxibustion is a traditional Chinese medicine technique that involves the burning of mugwort, a small, spongy herb, to facilitate healing. It is a treatment method used alone or in conjunction with acupuncture for preventing health conditions and alleviating pain. This technique enhances the effects of treatments through deep penetration of heat into the tissues of the body.
Moxibustion is especially known for providing relief with stubborn musculoskeletal pains, sports injuries, and pain conditions that traditional Western treatments are not fully successful in diagnosing and treating.

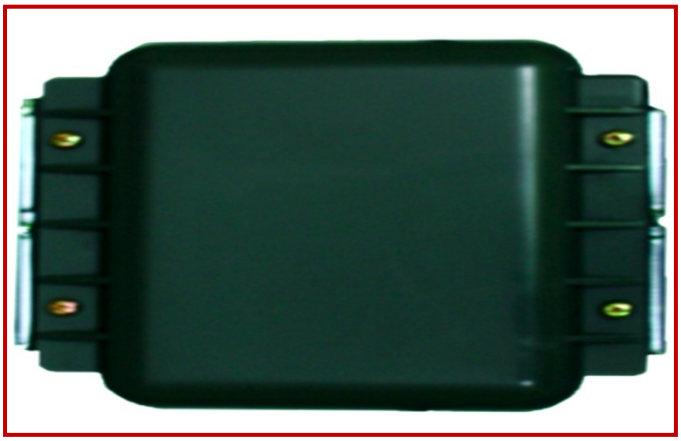

Moxibustion treatments warm regions of the body and specific acupuncture points. Heat in the natural environment induces higher kinetic energy, which creates motion. Moxibustion introduces heat into the body stimulating circulation to those regions and points.

Chiropractic is found from two Greek words Chiro and Practice, which means done by hand. Chiropractic Therapy was introduced by Dr. D D Palmer in the year 1890. It is been highly appreciated and practiced by Therapists. Now a days the Chiropractic therapy is taught in many colleges and paramedical institutes.

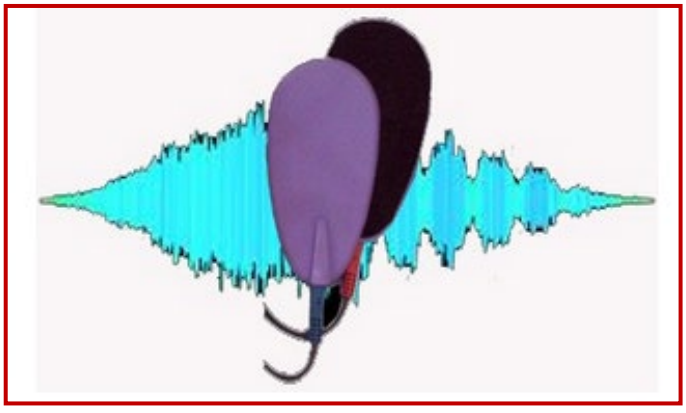

It is grounded in the principle that the body can heal itself when the skeletal system is correctly aligned and the nervous system is functioning properly.

Chiropractic is a manual therapy mainly used for treating problems associated with bones, joints and the back. It diagnoses, treats and prevents joint, muscle and ligament conditions. To achieve this, the practitioner uses his or her hands or an adjusting tool to perform specific manipulations of the vertebrae. When these bones of the spine are not correctly articulated, then the nerve transmission is disrupted and causes pain in the back, as well as other areas of the body. Spinal manipulation is thought to improve the efficiency of your body's nervous system and enable natural healing.

Dooroomi Medical introduced the first time a new technology in the form of Electromagnetic Therapy in Taeyangsuk Mat. It has strong magnetism (about 12K Gauss power) and when it came in contact with the electric field then it creates a strong a magnetic field. Applying the same principle when we start taking therapy, it gives all the benefits of Medical Magnetic therapy.

At that time Electromagnet poses both the South Pole and the North Pole and its pole alternate South pole to North pole and vice versa 50 to 60 times in a second in a high speed. Due to the faster moment of Electromagnet, it gives maximum benefit to our whole body BioWave is a patented pain blocking technology that is designed to block pain at the source – delivering therapeutic electrical signals through the skin that actually prevent pain from reaching the brain. Clinical studies show that 85 percent of patients responded to BioWave. It's proven to reduce pain and increase your range of motion and decrease stiffness for up to 72 hours following a single 30-minute treatment.

Photon Energy is a therapeutic technique that uses red low-level wavelengths of light to treat skin issues, such as wrinkles, scars, and persistent wounds, among other conditions.

TAEYANGSUK:- "The First Ray of Sun"

Taeyangsuk is a blend of nature and biotechnology which is born of a combination of 7 types of natural minerals for the emission of spirit and energy.

It is a system of combining mysterious minerals
